

Dallas AORN Meeting
September 19 Meeting

The September meeting of the Dallas AORN chapter was called to order at 1810 with Kate Bohr presiding

- * Introductions and celebrations – Tamera Burkhalter was new in attendance
- * The May will be posted when completed and approved.
- * JD has been selected as a candidate for the AORN National Board of Directors - voting begins in February 2024- vote for JD

The business meeting began at 1815 with President Elect Kate Bhoire presiding.

- * Terri is not able to provide Treasurer's report because her rebuilt computer no longer has Quicken. She is working to rebuild the documentation from bank statements.
 - * For the 2023-2024 Calendar, note the AORN Global Surgical Conference & Expo is March 9-12 in Nashville. Please plan to attend.
 - * The symposium for TCORN will be held in Dallas – no date has been determined
 - * Our current virtual Platform is a Zoom account under JD's name. The Dallas chapter will either need to get a Zoom account or Terri suggested that we use Google Meet which is a feature of our Google account.
 - * Cookbook - JD and Greg are leading the Cookbook project and are looking to publish by May of next year.
- They requested that everyone send recipes to the link on our website home page. They are planning to incorporate the previous two Dallas AORN cookbooks (Vol 1 Vol 2 and now Vol 3). It will be a fund raiser through Amazon
- * Journal Club article Perioperative Risk Assessment for Skin Injury. Sherah will lead online chat and discussion chat
 - * TCORN Updates: A smoke Evacuation press release coming soon. A 2024 symposium is to be held in Dallas Date TBD
(Duplicate information)

Educational Presentation was lead by Rep Scrubs. Presenters were Blake Mazza and Nick Terotola.